

Slack Scanner

Marcus | October 29, 2019

The Architecture was used to ensure future extensibility for this application.

We understand that TBC is going through some changes in their work flows and platform design. Thus, we want to encapsulate the full service within a RESTful API so that it can be used in future.